

CRYPTIC CLUES...Yo! Ho! Ho! And a bottle of Rum!

START At the roundabout at the south end of Quality Street – See a building with red walls and three unusual windows	3. All go with endless ethics combined -----	Now use the zebra to get to your next location directly opposite - The words will stare you in the face	4. Reform monarch's cubicle here ----- -----	Now go up the High Street - look out for drills, heaters and all that sort of stuff
5. Put your house ahead of this tough stuff ----- -----	Further up the High street take the first left - to the ruined church – a left-handed grave search party works fastest! Not faceless.	1. RLS must have heard him loud and clear ----- -----	Retrace your steps to the High Street and continue west. Carry right on past. Why not?	8. D'n't rush by without buying ----- ----- -----
Go on and then cross the road – any abbot would feel at home here – now take a good look all around	9. The complete opposite of chasing a wee ball ----- -----	Now cross Church Road and pass the last Bank in town - but keep your eyes peeled to the opposite side of the road now – You must look above the well.	11. It needs 6 legs to stand on -----	Via West End Place and green, to the big anchor - Head towards harbour - Look out for the old house with 3 red-eyed windows! [option of detour 1]
13. Rearrange some of each basement window to get the name of this cottage -----	Go on left along the lower quay and wind your way round the corners to the big four storey granary	14. Beermat or altered state keeps pressure on -----	Take in the Harbour itself and go up the steps at the right hand side of the Lobster Shack – it is nearby	16. A safe place to take liberties with peril do you think? ----- -----
Now head up the steps past the Seabird Centre. Behind the standing statue - Go in and find the answer – They were real life savers	18. A parrot locket can be reformed to be quite useful hereabouts ----- -----	Now head East all the way to the end of Melbourne Road - head south west along the Quadrant - look for the blanks [option of detour 2]	19. Avoidance of wax down it melted here ----- -----
